

Juniors in France and Belgium

PHOTOGRAPH: INSTITUT DE TOURAINE

Language courses for under 16-year-olds are a popular sector in the language teaching industry but schools have to follow strict guidelines if they are to meet the needs of both pupils and parents.

Children need to be motivated and parents need to be reassured that the schools they have sent their children to are safe places to live, learn and play. We look at some of the junior courses available in France and Belgium.
