Business in Malta

Malta is a popular destination for students wanting an activity-based holiday combined with language learning in the Mediterranean sunshine, but more and more language schools in the country are developing their student base and offering business courses to clients.

The following guide provides a snapshot of the variety of business courses available, as well as some of the facilities offered by a range of language schools on the islands of Malta and neighbouring Gozo. The majority offer specialist executive accommodation and arrange seminars and site visits to local businesses.
